
Lines are influence ranges over leave-one-country-out refits (implementation A), not confidence intervals. They are not part of any equivalent-specification set. Full caption in reports/replication_report.md.